

Scoil Gheimhridh Sydney 2010

The Scoil Gheimhridh Sydney 2010 is a long weekend of Irish language and craic. Come and improve your Irish language skills.

The key activity of the weekend is Irish language classes. Other Irish activities provide a break in a convivial environment. These include the official opening, table quiz, guest speaker, concert and optional classes in poetry, singing, tin whistle, yoga or dance. Informal sessions continue into the wee small hours. Come and join the fun.

The school is open to adults from across Australia:

- complete newcomers to the Irish language
- those who want to improve their Irish, for example those who learnt it at school
- fluent people who want to meet to converse in Irish and to help others learn.

There are classes at five levels to suit the Irish language skills of the participants. On the Saturday and Sunday there are three language classes per day.

Dates: 11 - 14 June 2010

Venue: Chevalier Resource Centre, 1 Roma Avenue, Kensington, Sydney

Booking: by 21 May 2010.

The Scoil commences on Friday evening, 11 June, with the official opening.

Classes are held on Saturday and Sunday with cultural interludes. Evening activities culminate in a concert on Sunday night.

To top off the week-end, Father Michael O'Sullivan will lead a trip to Waverley Cemetery on the Monday morning to see the 1798 memorial.

A lot of people are helping us: the teachers from Perth, Adelaide, Melbourne, Canberra, Wollongong and Sydney, and the committee and members of the Irish Language School Sydney.

Our heartfelt thanks to all of our supporters, particularly to the Consulate General of Ireland, the Irish National Association of Australasia and Muiris Ó Súilleabháin for their long-standing financial support of the Scoil.
